

Trioflex Advanced

THE standard treatment couch for physiotherapy! The same functionality as the Trioplus, but with additional armrests. The armrests are adjustable and provide an extremely comfortable ventral position, with the best possible relaxation of the shoulder and neck muscles. The armrests can also be removed to create more space under the head section, which is useful for cervico-cranial treatments.

- 3-section support surface, suitable for most basic positions.
- Adjustable middle section for the best possible position of the spinal column in flexion.
- Head support can be adjusted positively and negatively, and can also be adjusted almost fully downwards.
- Leg section also suitable for use as a back support.
- Extra armrests
